

The Great Buffalo Jewbilee!

FAQs

What are the hours of The Great Buffalo Jewbilee!?

The Great Buffalo Jewbilee! begins at 11:30 AM and runs until 6:00 PM.

Where can I park?

There will be a limited number of spots at the JCC available to JCC members. The Temple Beth Zion parking lot will be reserved for vendors and Festival volunteers. Street parking will be available as well as Metro Rail (one block west of Summer/Best station).

Is there an admission price?

There is no admission price to attend The Great Buffalo Jewbilee! All events and activities at The Great Buffalo Jewbilee! are free. Food, wine, and beer are available for purchase. In addition, local vendors will be selling art and other goods for purchase.

What will happen if it rains?

Not to worry, many of our activities and vendors are indoors. As well, our main stage and food vendors are all tented.

How do I purchase food tickets?

There are three ticket booths located at the Festival: one beside the Main Stage and at either end of the Food vendors walkway. Tickets may be purchased for $1 each with cash or credit. Food vendors will not be accepting cash, with the exception of the beer and wine tent.

Is all the food Kosher?

All food prepared and served is supervised and approved by the Buffalo Vaad HaKashrus.

Where can I find bathrooms?

Bathrooms are located in the Temple Beth Zion and JCC buildings. The JCC bathrooms are also outfitted with changing tables. Please review the Festival Guide Map for more detailed information.

Will The Great Buffalo Jewbilee! be an annual event?

We will have to wait and see, but we are excited that so many of you have already asked this question!
