

Let's Talk About antisemitism

TALKING WITH CHILDREN ABOUT ANTISEMITISM

Presenter: Kirstie Henry

RESOURCES

LINK TO PJ LIBRARY ARTICLE

PJ Library article that offers some quick tips, along with a number of other resources, including a suggestion of books for various ages, which deal with relevant topics.

LINK TO RISING ANTISEMITISM ON SOCIAL MEDIA

This article explains the rise of antisemitism on social media and I include it because it's something to talk about with kids before they start accessing things like TikTok, for example.

LINK TO SHINE A LIGHT WEBSITE

Age-appropriate recommendations.

LINK TO NICKELODEON PARENTS TALK AND TAKE ACTION GUIDE

A comprehensive guide for parents and caregivers to talk and take action around antisemitism.

TALKING WITH CHILDREN ABOUT ANTISEMITISM: UPCOMING VIRTUAL PROGRAMS

On May 18, at 7:30 pm, the Lappin Foundation is hosting a virtual program on this topic. Dr. Samantha Vinokor-Meinrath, author of #antisemitism: Coming of Age During the Resurgence of Hate, will offer suggestions and answer questions about how to talk to children about antisemitism. Additional resources will be provided. The program is free, and everyone is welcome.

Click here for more information

(Miami) Center for the Advancement of Jewish Education's Departments of Adult Learning and Teen Education & Engagement, in partnership with the Jewish Community Relations Council (JCRC) and the Anti-Defamation League (ADL), invite you to participate in an important virtual program, "How to Talk to Your Children and Grandchildren About antisemitism" on May 11 at 7 pm.

Click here for more information