YOUR JOURNEY

J² crafts journeys of inspiration, education, and Jewish connections to Israel and worldwide. We are guided by a simple but powerful concept: No two trips are the same; each experience should be personal, meaningful, and backed by superb service. Travel is not just about the places you visit, but the connections you make along the way.

PROGRAM ITINERARY

DAY 1

BUENOS AIRES: A COLORFUL FIRST ENCOUNTER

Mon. Nov 1, 2027

- Arrive at Buenos Aires International Airport at 10:00 a.m. Meet your J² Expert Educator and local guide for an introduction and orientation to the journey ahead.
- Explore the colorful neighborhood of La Boca and stroll along Caminito, taking in its vibrant streets, lively dancers, and distinctive souvenir stands. Enjoy lunch on your own.
- Discover the historic heart of Buenos Aires on a guided tour featuring:
  - Plaza de Mayo, surrounded by the Casa Rosada, Argentina's Government House.
  - The Metropolitan Cathedral.
  - The Cabildo, the original City Hall dating from the period of Spanish colonial rule.
- Continue to the Jewish Museum at Libertad Synagogue, located within Buenos Aires' Grand Synagogue, and trace the history of Argentine Jewry through its unique collection and exhibits.
- Check in to the hotel.
- Gather for a welcome dinner at a local kosher restaurant and celebrate the beginning of your journey together.

Overnight: Buenos Aires Meals: Dinner

DAY 2

JEWISH BUENOS AIRES: COMMUNITY, MEMORY & RESILIENCE

Tue. Nov 2, 2027

- Practice Tikkun Olam by volunteering with one of the Tzedaká Foundation's charitable initiatives, learning about and assisting in its transformative work supporting vulnerable communities across Argentina.
- Explore the Once District, the center of Jewish life in Buenos Aires and home to many of the city's synagogues, schools, seminaries, and communal institutions.
- Stop at the site of the AMIA bombing, visit the rebuilt community center and its moving memorial to the 85 victims, and meet with JAFI shlichim to learn about their work and the enduring connections between Argentina and Israel.
- Enjoy lunch on your own.
- Visit the Holocaust Museum and examine how the Shoah reverberated throughout Argentine society and shaped the experiences of the country's Jewish community.
- Return to the hotel.
- Experience one of Argentina's most celebrated cultural traditions during an unforgettable evening devoted to tango. Begin with a private class introducing the dance's fundamental steps and distinctive passion, rhythm, and elegance. Then, enjoy a traditional tango dinner show featuring Argentine cuisine and captivating performances by professional dancers, while learning about tango's history and cultural significance.

Overnight: Buenos Aires Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 3

EDUCATION, CARE & JEWISH CONTINUITY

Wed. Nov 3, 2027

- Check out of the hotel.
- Visit the ORT School, a cornerstone of Jewish education in Argentina, and learn how it prepares the next generation through academic excellence, innovation, and Jewish community life.

- Meet with representatives of the JDC to learn about their vital work strengthening Jewish life and supporting community members throughout Argentina.
- Continue to Le Dor Va Dor, a Jewish senior residence serving older members of the community.
- Enjoy lunch at a local kosher restaurant.
- Step inside the magnificent Teatro Colón, Buenos Aires' renowned opera house and one of the world's most celebrated venues for opera and classical music.
- Transfer to the airport for your flight to Puerto Iguazú.
- Check in to the hotel and enjoy dinner on your own at the hotel.
